ANSWER TO QUERY

J. C. Gray of the University of Waterloo has located the source of the epigraph to James Fenimore Cooper's Satanstoe, which Cooper attributes to Spenser: "The only amaranthine flower on earth, / Is virtue; the only treasure, truth." [See SpN II, 2.] The source is not Spenser but William Cowper's The Task, where the quotation occurs in the section entitled "The Garden," Book III, ll. 268-9.
